Pouring Medium is specially formulated to achieve even, flowing color without cracking when mixed with acrylic paints. It thins the paint, increasing paint flow. Perfect for creating cell effects in paint pouring techniques without altering the paint color. This formula is flexible, non-yellowing and water resistant once dry.

F

Acrylic Gesso

Acrylic Gesso is a quick drying, bright white primer that seals and stiffens art surfaces. Creates a matte surface with a slight texture for optimal adhesion. For use with acrylics, oils, tempera and other paint media.

ROYAL LANGNICKEL BRUSHES & ACCESSORIES

royalbrush.com

ANATOMY OF A BRUSH

All brushes are made of four parts: the tip, reservoir, ferrule and handle.

HAIR TYPE

The quality and availability of a natural hair affects the price of a brush. The mixture of different diameters of synthetic filaments also determines the cost, as each filament is individually extruded.

hair type	density
Pony	Soft Natural Bristle
Fitch	Soft Natural Bristle
Camel	Soft Natural Bristle
Sable	Soft Natural Bristle
Squirrel	Soft Natural Bristle
Ox	Medium Natural Bristle
Goat	Soft Natural Bristle
Boar or Hog	Stiff Bristle
Synthetic, Multi-Diameter	Soft to Medium
Nylon	Medium to Stiff
Synthetic Bristle	Stiff

FERRULE TYPE

The ferrule is one of the most important parts of the brush because it holds the bristles and connects all parts of the brush. Best quality ferrules can represent up to one-third the cost of the brush.

ferrule	benefits
Plated Brass	The highest quality ferrule, nickel, copper, gold or black-plated brass represent the most durable ferrule. They are used on best quality brushes. They do not rust and will not deform easily.
Aluminum	Seamless aluminum ferrules are rust proof and will not allow solvent to affect the brush head. An aluminum ferrule is softer than brass and as a result can be deformed more easily.
Plastic	A plastic ferrule is typically used for disposable brushes.

HANDLE TYPE

The handle type can determine the cost and durability of a paint brush.

handle type	Benefits
Acrylic	Best for water-based mediums. It will not absorb water and therefore will not expand and contract. The beveled end is used for burnishing, scraping, and removing color. Very durable.
Kiln-Dried Hardwood	Assures that brush heads stay firmly crimped.
Polymer	Economical, excellent for water-based mediums as it will not absorb water. Very durable.
Silk Touch™	A rubberized coating used to add comfort for the artist and protect the brush handle.

HANDLE LENGTH

The type of medium used and the amount of small detail being painted determines the choice of handle length.

handle length	uses
Standard	Also known as watercolor length. This brush length is ideal if you like to work close to your painting.
Long/Easel	Used for oil and acrylic painting at an easel. A long handle brush allows the artist to step back from the painting to get a better perspective of what is being painted.
Short	Usually used on craft brushes or brushes designed for children. Allows the artist to be closer to their work for more control.
Ultra Short/Mini	An ultra short brush handle is best for very small detail work. This brush length is ideal for miniatures and models.

HOW TO SELECT BRUSHES

Look for the star rating near the top of each page. The more stars you see, the better the quality.

Best Quality ★★★★★

Best brushes are made with top quality hairs, handles and ferrules and are manufactured to the highest exacting standards.

Better Quality ★★★★☆

Better brushes provide an upgrade in quality and in manufacturing standards.

Good Quality ★★★☆☆ ★★★★★ ★★★★★

Good brushes are perfect for beginners of all ages and for those who wish to experiment with a different style or type of brush. A three star rating is a slightly better quality than a two star and a two star is slightly better than one.

head filaments	medium	surface
 Soft Natural	Acrylic, adhesives, alkyds, craft acrylics, gouache, glass paints, oils, tempera, watercolor, hobby paints	Canvas, canvas board, masonry, wood, glass, glazed ceramic, ceramic bisque, metal, plastic, plaster, silk, masonite, rocks
 Bristle (natural or synthetic)	Adhesives, oils, gel mediums, tube (high viscosity) acrylics – generally for heavier bodied media	Canvas, canvas board, masonry, wood, masonite, concrete, ceramic bisque
 Synthetic	Acrylic, adhesives, alkyds, craft acrylics, gouache, glass paints, oils, tempera, watercolor, hobby paints, fabric paints	Canvas, canvas board, masonry, wood, masonite, glazed ceramic, ceramic bisque, metal, plastic, plaster, all fabric, concrete

CHOOSING THE RIGHT BRUSH

Choose just the right style of brush from our wide selection to get exactly the stroke or texture you want. The guide below will help you pick the best tool to achieve the right look.

BRUSH STORAGE AND CARE TIPS

1. Wood handle brushes should always be stored flat or hanging down to prevent water from soaking into the handle.
2. Acrylic brushes should be stored flat, but can be stored upright if most of the water has been dried from the hairs.
3. When storing natural hair brushes for the summer or long periods, dip the brushes in liquid hand or dish soap, wipe the excess, reshape the head, and allow the brush to dry. This will seal the hairs, eliminate mites from getting to the brush, and ensure the brush head keeps its shape.
4. Do not store brushes in cramped quarters where the hairs can get bent out of shape and break.
5. While brushes are not made to last forever, good care can help extend their life time significantly.

- If acrylic paints dry in the hairs, the brush may be ruined, the hairs permanently damaged.
- Try not to soak handles. Water levels should only be to the crimping on the ferrule. Wetting handles will cause cracking and loosening of the ferrules. Dry handles after every cleaning.
- Clean immediately after painting. Do not let any paint sit or dry in the hairs.
- Occasionally, you can clean the brushes with regular hand soap, reshape and let dry.
- Be gentle when using cake paints. Coarse scrubbing can permanently damage the hairs and force paint into the ferrule.
- For natural hair brushes, occasionally use brush conditioner. This will keep the hairs from drying out and breaking.

CLEANING BRUSHES

Water-based media: Rinse the brush several times in clean water. Lather (use a good brush cleaner) up the brush and swirl it around in the palm of your hand, then rinse; continue until all of the rinse water is colorless and all of the cleaner is removed.

Other media: Rinse the brush in solvent until all of the color is removed. Wipe the brush back and forth on paper towel or rags to work the solvent throughout the brush and remove all color.

Travel Brush Washers

The Travel Brush Washers have accordion like sides that will collapse almost flat for traveling. They can be expanded to their full height and filled with water.

Square Brush Basin

The basin is divided into three compartments for soaking, scrubbing and rinsing. One side is split into two compartments with a brush rest for soaking and rinsing brushes. The other side has a grid in the bottom for removing stubborn paint from brush bristles. The 20 brush rests allow brushes to dry and maintain their shape.

ESSENTIALS™ PALETTE KNIVES

Essentials™ palette knives and scrapers are durable, attractive and come in a multitude of shapes and sizes. They are primarily used for mixing paint colors, mediums and additives directly on the palette before applying them to a surface. These knives are made out of forged steel specially tempered to provide just the right amount of flexibility. Versatile and functional, these palette knives appeal to all artists.
